Handwritten text in the right column.

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Georgian, on the left page of an open manuscript. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The script is dense and characteristic of medieval Georgian manuscripts. There are some faint markings and possibly a small initial or symbol at the beginning of the first line.

The script is dense and characteristic of medieval Georgian manuscripts. There are some faint markings and possibly a small initial or symbol at the beginning of the first line.

Vertical handwritten text or marginalia located in the gutter between the two pages of the manuscript. The text is written in the same script as the main body of text and appears to be a continuation or commentary related to the adjacent pages.

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely a form of Greek or Latin, located at the top of the left page.
